第7問 次の英文を読み、あとの問い(A・B)に答えなさい。

In Europe, most women want to be slim. Europeans think that a slim woman is a symbol of beauty. They also think that slim women are healthy and careful about their food. However, in some parts of the world, women want to be fat. In many parts of Africa, people think that a fat woman is beautiful. How fat? There is no limit. If a woman is fat, they think that she is healthy and rich. If you are slim, they think you are a poor worker with little money and you can't buy enough food. They believe that slim women will be sick very easily. They also believe that fat women have enough food to eat, enjoy a healthy life and will have many healthy babies.

To help girls look healthy and beautiful, people in central Africa send them to a fattening room. Fattening rooms are an old *tradition and an important part of a girl's life. Every girl must go to the fattening room. It is usually near their house or a part of it. In the fattening room, a girl sits on a special chair and waits for the time to eat. Her mother gives her bowls of food like rice, *yam, and beans — the kinds of foods that help her get fat. She also drinks a lot of water. After that, she sits on the floor on a mat which is made of leaves. When night comes, she sleeps on the floor.

In the fattening room, the girl doesn't move very much. She can only eat, sleep, and get fatter. Her only visitors are women who teach her how to sit, walk, and talk in front of her future husband. They also give her advice about cleaning, sewing, and cooking. It is boring to be in the fattening room for a long time with nothing to do, but she doesn't want to go out, because she knows that it is very important for her.

In southeastern *Nigeria, *brides go to a fattening room before they get married. They cannot leave the room for many weeks. At the end of this time, but before the wedding, the brides walk through the village so everyone can *admire their big bodies. Even after a woman gets married, she can go to a fattening room. She may go there several times because it is important for her to stay fat. Many men think that their wives should be fat. If a married woman is fat, many people will think that her husband is rich and that he is a *responsible man.

If parents don't send their daughter to a fattening room, their friends and family members may laugh at them. They will say that the parents are not *doing their duty. In the old days, girls sometimes stayed in a fattening room for two years. Today, however, some parents don't have enough money to send their daughters there for more than a few months. Also, fattening rooms are not very popular in cities now. In cities, health *education and western culture have changed their tradition, but in villages, this tradition still continues.

In *Niger, they have a festival to *celebrate the heaviest woman. Here, women have a contest to choose who is the fattest. On the morning of the contest, the women eat a large amount of food and drink lots of water. The fattest woman is the winner. She gets a prize — more food.

- *tradition 伝統
- *yam ヤムイモ
- *Nigeria ナイジェリア(アフリカ西部の共和国)
- *bride 花嫁
- *admire ほめたたえる
- *responsible 信頼できる
- *do one's duty 義務を果たす
- *education 教育
- *Niger ニジェール(アフリカ北西部の共和国)
